Scholarship Details

Benjamin Gregory Wood:

(1 award per year)

The Benjamin Gregory Wood Scholarship was established by the parents of Benjamin Gregory Wood in his memory. The family requested the funding go to a student who plans to pursue a career related to substance abuse in some way -- education, prevention, working with abusers, counseling, etc.

(Additional Reqs: Student must be a Sophomore.)

Mabel Dixon Looper:

(1 award per year)

The Mabel Dixon Looper Scholarship was established by the family of Mabel Dixon Looper in her honor; she was the first female to earn a Master's degree in Sociology at OSU.

(Additional Reqs: Student must be OK resident, a sophomore, have >3.25 gpa, and preference is given to females)

O.D. Duncan:

(2 awards per year; one undergrad, and one graduate - plaque, no money)

The O.D. Duncan award was established in the name of O.D. Duncan who established the Department of Sociology and Rural Life in 1936 at Oklahoma A&S (OSU). He was chairman of the department until his retirement in 1963.

(Additional Reqs: Student must have >3.5 gpa, and preference is given to Seniors.)

Richard Dodder:

(2 awards per year; one undergrad, and one graduate)

Dr. Richard Dodder established this scholarship as a result of receiving the 1995 Oklahoma Medal for Excellence in Teaching at the college/university level from the Oklahoma Foundation For Excellence. This endowment grew to its present level from the many additional, benevolent contributors. The scholarship is given in recognition of excellence and achievement/use of Sociology.
